

10/0 Double Hook Rig 7691s

This Southern Tuna 10/0 Double Hook Rig was made to fit perfectly with our 10 inch East Coast series of lures, however it will also fit any other lure from 10-13 inches.

These hooks are ultra sharp and of excellent quality stainless steel. They have a world-wide reputation for their excellent quality and make a great trolling lure hook rig.

We will happily rig any lure purchased from us with these hooks upon request.

Rigged with 600lb SS Wire and a Stainless Shackle this rig is worth around $35 in shops.
